

Curriculum Vitae Wolfgang Martin RUDISCHHAUSER

- Born 30 August 1959, Biberach, Germany
- Education Master in Economics: Georg August Universität, Göttingen, Germany
Université de Paris IX, Dauphine, Paris, France
Johannes Gutenberg Universität, Mainz, Germany;
- 1988-1991 Diplomatic training followed by work as desk officer in the Economic and Development Cooperation Division of the German Foreign Ministry
- 1991-1994 Desk Officer at the German OECD Mission in Paris
- 1994- 1997 Assistant Head of Division/Desk Officer in the UN Economic Affairs Division, German Foreign Ministry
- 1997-2001 Deputy Consul General, German Consulate General Shanghai, P.R.C.
- 2001- 2004 Deputy Head of Mission, Permanent Mission of Germany to the UN and the IAEA, Vienna
- 2004 - February 2007 Head IAEA Unit, Division on non-proliferation and disarmament; MFA
- March 2007 - September 2008 Advisor to the Personal Representative of the HR for Non-proliferation and Disarmament (EU Council Secretariat)
- October 2008 - Mai 2011 Counsellor for Middle East and Gulf Countries, Non-proliferation and Disarmament; CT Coordinator; Political Section; Permanent Mission of Germany to the EU, Brussels
- May 2011 to May 2014 Chair Working Party Non-Proliferation (CONOP) Directorate for Security Policy and Conflict Prevention, European External Action Service, Brussels
- June 2014 - Director, WMD Non-proliferation Centre NATO IS

Married, 3 children

Recent Publications

Dirk Schriefer, Walter Sandtner, Wolfgang Rudischhauser (Editors)
50 Jahre IAEA - Ein Wirken für Frieden und Sicherheit im nuklearen Zeitalter
(50 Years of IAEA - Working for Peace and Security in the Nuclear Age; Nomos, 2007)

Could ISIL go nuclear? Article published in "NATO review" on 26 May 2015
<http://www.nato.int/docu/review/2015/Also-in-2015/ISIL-Nuclear-Chemical-Threat-Iraq-Syria/EN/index.htm>

Article: Proliferation of WMD and Defending against CBRN Threats - NATO's Achievements and Ongoing Challenges, Published in: Security Technology Review, Association of the German Army, 2/2015, October 2015, Bonn and in European Security and Defence 3/2016, Mittler Report Verlag, Bonn